

CAREFUL ANALYSIS
OF NEBRASKA VOTE.Democratic Managers Now Are
Claiming a Sweeping
Victory.

PAST REPUBLICAN BOASTS.

Assertions and Results of Four Years Ago Compared With the Forecasts Advanced in
This Campaign.

Lincoln, Nov. 1.—Democrats in this State believe that the slightest reason for doubting that Nebraska will give Bryan a larger majority than it did in 1896. This is the sober judgment of the fusion managers, and in this they are backed up by the betting element, who have the Republicans bet to a standstill on the proposition.

The Republicans have made some gains. This is not disputed. The progress argument has brought back to the party some of the men who left it in the early days of the alliance. This gain, however, is confined entirely to the cattle and wool regions, where the war and the tariff have raised prices to an unusually high level. It is not to exceed 2,000 votes. On the contrary, more than twice that number have been lost to the Republican party in the towns and cities, where the laboring element get but 15 per cent more wages and pay 50 per cent more for what they consume than in 1896, and among the railroad men, where wages are approximately the same. Among the Germans and other foreign-born citizens many votes have been lost on the issue of imperialism. There are 6,000 Hollanders in the State, nearly all of them former Republicans who will give Bryan a greatly increased vote because of the administration's attitude toward the Boers.

The Gold Democrats are nearly all back to the Democratic rank. It is estimated that fully 80 per cent of them will vote for Bryan. The remainder would come back into the fold, or most of them, were it not for personal jealousies. Morton, Boyd, Martin, Cook and others of the old-time leaders have never recovered their dignity since Bryan upset them in 1894. The previous year they set up the delegations to the State Convention against Bryan, and humiliated him. The next year he turned the tables on them, and they were forced to support him for governor in 1898.

The majority of the Gold Democrats voted for McKinley in 1898. Fulton and Hancock received 2,800 votes, and the number who voted for McKinley can be accurately estimated by deducting their number from the average for State officers, which was 5,222. Summed up, the situation in Nebraska is:

McKinley's vote in 1898.....122,252
Add disaffected.....2,000
Total.....124,252
From which should be subtracted:
Disaffected Republicans.....6,000
Total.....118,252
McKinley's probable vote.....118,252
On the other side of the ledger are the following figures:
Bryan's vote in 1898.....115,225
Disaffected Republicans.....6,000
Total.....121,225
Add disaffected.....2,000
Total.....123,225
Mid-ranges and disaffected Democrats.....5,000
Total.....128,225

Bryan's probable vote.....128,225
Bryan's probable majority.....10,000
These figures are those of the best-informed of the fusion campaign managers. They give McKinley half of the new voters, the newcomers and the young men who have just attained voting age, and expect a greater percentage. Chairman Edmonson of the Populists, says Bryan's majority is certain to be 10,000, and may be 20,000. Chairman Hall of the Democrats claims practically the same.

Last year the Republican managers claimed they would win by 5,000 to 7,000, but as they are claiming now, the fusion would win by 10,000 to 20,000. It won by 10,000. In 1896, on the eve of election, Chairman Post of the Republicans issued this prediction:

"My previous estimate of the result of the election in Nebraska stands unaltered. The age majority should be near 20,000. We have had small gains everywhere during the last year, but the opposition is already on the retreat. The Populists of the Populists and Chairman Dahlgren of the Democrats predicted Bryan would carry the State by 12,000 to 15,000. It is now 10,000 to 12,000. Nebraska is absolutely certain for Bryan. He will also elect full fusion ticket, seven Populists and one Democrat. It will also elect five out of the six Congressmen. Burkett in the First is likely to defeat Bryan, but in the Second, he is quite certain to be defeated by an ex-union printer, now an editor. Nebraska is running for a fifth time. In the Third, Robinson, Democrat, will beat Hays, Republican; in the Fourth, the Populist is practically certain of victory over Pope, Republican; in the Fifth, Shallenbarger, Democrat, will win over Martin, Republican. In the Sixth, Neville, Populist, is down to defeat Kirkland, Republican.

The old gerrymander of the Republicans still stands, and this gives them encouragement to hope for victory. The practical certainty that if the Legislature is Republican, Thompson of Lincoln and Governor of Omaha, two local bosses, who are accused of trying to do over with the fusionists two years ago, after the Republican caucus, will be elected Senators, seems, however, to doom the legislative ticket of the Republicans to defeat.

Thomas Finney, a cripple and homeless invalid, was assigned before Judge Siders in the First District Police Court yesterday morning. He was crying his wares at Broadway and Elm street, making a considerable noise and attracting more attention than Police Officer Florida thought he ought, Wednesday afternoon, and was arrested.

Finney, wheel-chair and all were carted off to the Chestnut Street Substation. Yesterday morning Finney was taken before the Court, charged with idling and begging. Judge Siders promptly discharged him, saying that it was commendable in him to do what he could to earn a livelihood.
